Barry-Wehmiller International Joins the PTC ServiceAdvantage™ Program Providing Enterprise Solutions

ST. LOUIS, MO — February 18, 2015 — Barry Wehmiller International (B-WI) has accepted an exclusive invitation to become a Certified Partner in the PTC ServiceAdvantage Program.

As a Certified Partner of the program, B-WI has partnered with PTC to deliver the best solutions for product lifecycle management, content management, and dynamic publishing to PTC's 40,000+ customers. The primary focus of the PTC ServiceAdvantage™ Program is to enable PTC customers to realize the full value from their investments in PTC® products and solutions. The program gathers the world's top partners providing customers with domain expertise and sound understanding and knowledge of configuration and deployment of PTC products.

"B-WI has successfully worked hand-in-hand with PTC as one of their leading technology partners. We are very excited to have the opportunity to also become a service partner, allowing us to further integrate the PTC product suite and our PLM and ALM services to major customers in North America," said Jim Webb, Executive Partner at B-WI.

With a global delivery team, B-WI's PTC-Certified consultants deliver enterprise solutions that dramatically enhance time-to-market and operational excellence including Product Lifecycle Management (PLM), Application Lifecycle Management (ALM), and Enterprise System Integrations across multiple platforms. Joining the program provides B-WI with the tools and support necessary to integrate its applications and services with PTC solutions. B-WI will work together with PTC providing complementary consulting, implementation, and other enterprise services to its customers.

"We are pleased to have B-WI as a PTC ServiceAdvantage Partner," said John Harrill, Partner Director at PTC. "Their broad PLM expertise and portfolio of large manufacturing customers made them a natural fit for our program and delivering solutions to PTC customers."
