Hudson-Sharp welcomes Jason Bealeau as new Regional Sales Executive His decades of sales experience in packaging and printing will benefit customers

Jason Bealeau joins Hudson-Sharp as Regional Sales Executive.

GREEN BAY, Wis. — July 8, 2021 — Bag-converting equipment manufacturer Hudson-Sharp—part of Paper Converting Machine Company (PCMC) and Barry-Wehmiller’s converting equipment platform—is pleased to announce that Jason Bealeau has joined the company as Regional Sales Executive.

In his new role, Bealeau will be responsible for the Midwest region, as well as for serving multiple key customers. He will be replacing longtime Sales Executive John Krebsbach after he retires on Oct. 1, 2021. Bealeau has more than 25 years of experience in the packaging and printing industry, including 20-plus years with PCMC.

“Jason has a proven background in creating and maintaining exceptional customer relationships that are built on trust and performance,” said Scott Romenesko, Regional Sales Director for Hudson-Sharp. “We believe his knowledge of our customer base and experience in the marketplace will be tremendous assets for our team.”
