Thiele Technologies to unveil new feeder technology solutions at Graph Expo 2016

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. — August 18, 2016 — Thiele Technologies' feeder team will proudly introduce three new products at Graph Expo 2016, September 25-28, at the Orange County Convention Center in Orlando, FL, booth #1261. Thiele's feeder group includes the Streamfeeder and Sure-Feed product lines. Thiele Technologies is a leader in the design, manufacture and integration of friction feeding and placing equipment, bagging systems, bag & pouch manufacturing, cartoning & casepacking, bliss & tray, shrink bundling, robotics and palletizing equipment.

The new AT-72 and AT-112 Card Attaching systems combine the unique features from the Sure-Feed AT-2 and AT-3 systems and Pitney Bowes

APAS systems to create a robust solution. They operate at speeds up to 20,000 pieces per hour and consistently produce finished products with up to +/- 1/8" tolerances.

Thiele will also unveil the all-new TF-1250 Packaging Series Streamfeeder, which provides unmatched performance and reliability. Building on over 25 years of experience, the new TF-1250 incorporates the most innovative technologies in the marketplace today, providing the best value. The TF 1250 is ideal for all non-nested product feeding requirements including batch-counting, on-demand, and continuous feed into finishing machines including banders, shrink-wrappers, flow-wrappers, cartoners, labelers and much more.
